MISSIONARIES OF THE WEEK

Jim and Kathy Sullivan

Izaiah

Operation Dignity
Ghana

PRAISE GOD:

- For Jim's recent health reports: cancer treatments are finished, diabetes numbers are down, foot surgery is healing nicely . . . we thank Jesus.
- ODI is beginning to survey the 45,000 acres in Ghana. That means we can start the process of meeting with other organizations in Ghana to lease portions of the land, meet with USAID in Ghana and several other potential grantors. Thank you, Jesus.
- Jim is traveling to Ghana later this month to finalize the process of legal documentation for the land use.
- ODI is ready to begin significant opportunities with short-term trips, building relationships and evangelism opportunities in Ghana.

PRAY FOR:

- Our Board of Directors as we move forward with plans to stay in the path of Godly decisions as developing 45,000 acres can be daunting.
- Martin, our Executive Director in Ghana. He has been having heart problems and some other health issues. Pray for his healing.
- Our church contacts here in the States and for farmers interested in developing a ministry with agriculture and business opportunities.
- The finances to keep the project in Ghana moving forward and for supporters to grasp the vision and meet the mission opportunity in the midst of a business plan.
- The chiefs with whom Jim will be meeting while in Ghana. Pray for their openness and wisdom for Martin and Jim as they negotiate the development.
