RECEPTIVITY TO CARE – STEPHEN MINISTRY

Most people are much more open to giving care than receiving it. As a result, there are countless people today who, though they could benefit from a Christian friend who would listen and care for them, instead tough it out on their own. The feeling is that to ask for help is to admit weakness, and therefore admit inferiority. God created us to be interdependent (not independent). God's Word is clear on this; there are more than 50 verses that refer to "one another." We are to love, encourage, build up, and pray for one another, but it also has a reciprocal meaning. We are to allow others to love, encourage, build up and pray for us, as well. If you find yourself facing difficulties in life, don't succumb to society's norm of suffering alone. Take the courageous step of seeking help. Open your heart to receiving God's love and grace through another person. Our Stephen Ministry offers the opportunity of a very confidential relationship with someone who will listen to you and provide you with care and encouragement. If you have any need, call the Church Office (763-391 6140) and ask for Judy Petersen or Theron Fraser.

MISSIONARIES OF THE WEEK

Dave & JoAnne Harthan

TEAM

PRAISE GOD FOR:

- A great Midwest Conference on Missionary Care. There was great attendance (almost 230) and many great workshops. It is encouraging to see the strong desire of churches to care well for their missionaries.
- Many fruitful partnerships of the MN Coalition for Eastern Europe with ministries in Bulgaria, Romania, and the Czech Republic.
- His provision in our retirement. Our supporters have been so faithful in giving.

PRAY FOR:

- The ongoing planning of the next Midwest Conference on Missionary Care. Our theme will be "Living in the Tension Between Risk and Rest." Dave is working on the planning committee. Pray we find the right workshop presenters.
- Dave as he works on the board of the MN Coalition for Eastern Europe. We are connecting with and helping to fund ministries across Eastern Europe. Funding comes from our "Bibles for Missions" Thrift Store in Robbinsdale.
- Revive's Stephen Ministry. Dave and the leadership team are planning for the next training, which will begin in January. Pray that God will bring in a good group of new trainees.
- Improvement of JoAnne's health. She has been struggling with a significant lack of energy.
- Dave as he rides with the Twin Cities Bicycling Club. This has provided many opportunities to witness while riding.
